FEDERAL SERVICE IMPASSES PANEL TO HOLD TOWN HALL MEETING IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

The Federal Service Impasses Panel (FSIP) is pleased to announce that it will hold a Town Hall meeting in Washington, D.C. on Wednesday, December 14, 2016. The meeting will include a panel discussion with FSIP Chairman Mary Jacksteit; FSIP Members Barbara Franklin, Edward Hartfield, Marty Malin, Marvin Johnson, David Walker, and Donald Wasserman; and the FSIP's new Executive Director, Kimberly D. Moseley. This meeting will assist the federal labor-management-relations community in understanding the FSIP's role in resolving negotiation impasses arising under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute (the Statute). Dialogue between the FSIP Members and the audience will be encouraged.

The FSIP Town Hall Meeting will be held on December 14, 2016, from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. ET at the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA), 1400 K Street, NW, 2nd Floor Agenda Room in Washington, D.C.

You may register to attend at: <https://www.flra.gov/resources-training/training/federal-service-impasses-panel-town-hall-meeting>. Space is limited.

If you need additional information or have questions, please contact FSIP Office Manager Raqibah Muhammad at (202) 218-7790 or rmuhammad@flra.gov.

The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Statute. The FSIP resolves impasses between federal agencies and unions representing federal employees arising from negotiations over conditions of employment under the Statute and the Federal Employees Flexible and Compressed Work Schedules Act.
