DECISION

Statement of the Case

This case arises under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute, 5 U.S.C. 7101 et seq. (hereinafter called the Statute). Pursuant to a charge filed on February 26, 1987 by the Federal Employees Metal Trades Council of Charleston (FEMTCC), herein called the Union, a Complaint and Notice of Hearing was issued on May 28, 1987 by the Regional Director, Region IV, Federal Labor Relations Authority against Department of the Navy, Charleston Naval Shipyard, Charleston, South Carolina, herein called the Respondent.

The Complaint alleged, in substance, that Respondent violated Section 7116(a)(1), (5) and (8) of the Statute by failing and refusing to furnish the Union, upon request, the names and home addresses of bargaining unit employees represented by the Union as required by Section 7114(b)(4) of the Statute.

Respondent's Answer, dated June 18, 1987, was duly filed. As to the Complaint, Respondent admitted: (a) the jurisdictional allegations therein; (b) that on or about November 13, 1986 the Union, as the exclusive representative of an appropriate unit of Respondent's employees, requested the names and home addresses of bargaining unit employees; (c) that on or about December 16, 1986, Respondent denied the Union's request for the information; (d) that the names and home addresses so requested are normally maintained by Respondent in the regular course of business; (e) that such information is reasonably available, and (f) that such information does not constitute guidance, advice, counsel or training provided for management officials or supervisors, relating to collective bargaining.

Respondent's Answer denied that the information requested was necessary for full and proper discussion, understanding, and negotiation of subjects within the scope of collective bargaining. Further, the commission of any unfair labor practices in violation of Section 7116(a)(1), (5) and (8) of the Statute was denied.

Under date of July 13, 1987, General Counsel moved for summary judgment and submitted a brief in support thereof.

By Order dated July 13, 1987 the Regional Director referred the Motion to the Chief Administrative Law Judge pursuant to Section 2423.22(b)(1) of the Regulations. The matter was duly assigned to the undersigned for disposition. Under date of July 17, 1987, Respondent moved to dismiss General Counsel's Motion for Summary Judgment together with a supporting memorandum.

Respondent takes the position that it is not obliged under the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a to furnish the names and home addresses of unit employees to the Union. It insists that (a) the information, which it would otherwise be required to furnish under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 5 U.S.C. 552, is protected from disclosure under the exceptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(6); (b) home addresses do not fall within the exception (b)(3) of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(3) as "routine use" of information to be disclosed; (c) disclosure is not necessary under 7114(b)(4) of the Statute since alternative means exist for the Union to communicate with employees.

The facts herein, as well as the contentions raised by Respondent, are substantially the same as were present in Farmers Home Administration Finance Office, St. Louis, Missouri, 23 FLRA 788 (1986), affirmed in U.S. Department of Agriculture, Farmers Home Finance Administration, St. Louis, Missouri v. FLRA, Nos. 86-2579, 87-1024 (8th Cir. Jan. 15, 1988). The Authority has held, with affirmance by the Second and Eighth Circuit Courts, that the release of names and home addresses of bargaining unit employees to the exclusive representative of those employees is not prohibited by law, is necessary for unions to fulfill their duties under the Statute, and meets all of the other requirements established by Section 7114(b)(4). Further, it determined that the release of the information is required without regard to whether alternative means of communication are available. It therefore rejected in Farmers Home and later cases the argument that the release of the information sought by the Union herein is prohibited by law and is not necessary. See United States Department of Health and Human Services, Social Security Administration v. FLRA, Nos. 87-3513(L), 87-3514, 87-3515 (4th Cir. Nov. 25, 1987), affirming Department of Health and Human Services, Social Security Administration, 24 FLRA 543 (1986); 22nd Combat Support Group (SAC), March Air Force Base, California, 30 FLRA No. 72 (1987); Department of Health and Human Services, Social Security Administration and Social Security Administration Field Operations, New York Region, 24 FLRA 583 (1986).

Based on the foregoing, it is concluded that Respondent's refusal and failure to furnish the Union herein with the names and home addresses of bargaining unit employees was violative of Section 7116(a)(1), (5) and (8) of the Statute.

Accordingly, the motion by General Counsel for summary judgment is granted and Respondent's Motion to Dismiss General Counsel's Motion for Summary Judgment is hereby denied. It is recommended that the Authority issue the following:
