President Biden Announces Intent to Nominate Anne Wagner to be a Member of the FLRA

President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. has announced his intent to nominate Anne Wagner to be a Member of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA).

Anne Wagner currently serves as the Associate Special Counsel with the Office of Special Counsel and has been in that role since 2015. Prior to that, she served as Vice Chairman of the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) after being nominated for that position by President Obama and confirmed by the Senate in 2009. Wagner came to the MSPB after serving as General Counsel of the Personnel Appeals Board of the Government Accountability Office (GAO) where she had previously sat as a Board Member upon appointment by the U.S. Comptroller General. She began her career as a staff attorney with the General Services Administration, after which she went on to become an Assistant General Counsel for the American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE), AFL-CIO, the largest Federal-sector labor organization. In her nearly 20 years with AFGE, she led precedent-setting litigation and handled cases arising under the full array of laws governing Federal employment.

Wagner graduated from the University of Notre Dame and received her Juris Doctor from George Washington University. She is a member of the bar in the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Illinois and is admitted to practice before various Federal courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court.
