Carol Waller Pope Designated FLRA Acting Chairman

On February 19, 2009, President Barack Obama designated Carol Waller Pope, a Member of the Federal Labor Relations Authority, as Acting Chairman.

Chairman Pope has served as a Member of the Authority since November 2000. In a statement, Acting Chairman Pope said:

I am extremely honored by President Obama's designation to serve as Acting Chairman. I welcome the opportunity to continue to serve the President by leading the FLRA during these challenging times.

I believe that the work of the FLRA is important and that its mission to establish and implement policies and guidance that enhance the stability of labor-management relations in the Federal Government is critical to furthering the public interest in effective operations throughout the Government. I pledge my efforts to work diligently, along with my colleague on the Authority, Thomas Beck, and the many dedicated and talented employees throughout the agency, to ensure that the FLRA fulfills this mission.
