

CASE DIGEST: Arkansas Army Nat'l Guard & Ass'n of Civilian Technicians, 71 FLRA 612 (2020)

Regional Director Richard S. Jones (the RD) issued a Decision and Order and Direction of Election, denying a request by the incumbent union – Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 1776 (LIUNA) – that he reconsider his determination that the Association of Civilian Technicians (ACT) made an adequate showing of interest warranting an election. LIUNA filed an application for review with the Authority, requesting that the Authority order the RD to revisit the issue of the adequacy of ACT's showing of interest and issue a stay of the order of election. The Authority denied LIUNA's application for review because the RD's decision on the adequacy of the showing of interest is not subject to review under the Authority's Regulations, and LIUNA did not otherwise demonstrate a basis for review. Consequently, the Authority denied the request for a stay as moot.

This case digest is a summary of a decision issued by the Federal Labor Relations Authority, with a short description of the issues and facts of the case. Descriptions contained in this case digest are for informational purposes only, do not constitute legal precedent, and are not intended to be a substitute for the opinion of the Authority.