

CASE DIGEST: U.S. DHS, U.S. CBP, L.A., Cal., 72 FLRA 411 (2021)

The Arbitrator found that the Union's grievance filed on behalf of two grievants is not moot despite their voluntary retirements from the Agency, and the Agency filed exceptions. The Authority found that the Arbitrator exceeded her authority because, in determining that the grievance was not moot, she considered issues not specific to the two named grievants. Accordingly, the Authority set aside the award.
