CASE DIGEST: U.S. DHS, U.S. CBP, San Luis Port of Entry, 74 FLRA 680 (2026)

The Arbitrator found that the Agency violated contractual and statutory provisions in connection with the suspension and attempted termination of an alternative-work-schedule pilot program. The Arbitrator did not issue a final remedy, remanded the cease-and-desist remedy issue to the parties to resolve, and retained jurisdiction to issue a final remedy decision if the parties failed to reach an agreement. The Agency filed exceeded-authority, essence, nonfact, and contrary-to-law exceptions to the award. The Authority found the exceptions were interlocutory and dismissed the exceptions without prejudice.

This case digest is a summary of an order issued by the Federal Labor Relations Authority, with a short description of the issues and facts of the case. Descriptions contained in this case digest are for informational purposes only, do not constitute legal precedent, and are not intended to be a substitute for the opinion of the Authority.