FLRA Issues Final Rule Regarding Changes to Geographical Jurisdictions and in Case Handling Procedures

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) announces the publishing of a final rule regarding changes to FLRA's geographical jurisdictions and case-handling processes. The final rule amends regulations regarding FLRA Office of the General Counsel geographical jurisdictions in light of the closing of the FLRA's Chicago Regional Office. The FLRA is also amending regulations regarding a number of its case handling processes following the elimination of non-statutory functions pursuant to Executive Order 14210.

The Federal Register notice details the final rule to carry out these changes.

The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute.
