Charles Arrington sworn in as an Authority Member of the FLRA

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) is pleased to announce that on January 6, 2026 Charles “Chuck” Arrington was sworn in to be a Member of the Authority – the FLRA’s three-Member decisional component. This is Member Arrington’s first term following his confirmation in the Senate on December 18, 2025. Mr. Arrington was nominated by President Trump in May.

Mr. Arrington served most recently as the Deputy Chief Human Capital Officer (DCHCO) at the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Previously, he served as the Chief of Employee/Labor Relations at the National Cemetery Administration (NCA) in the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). Throughout his tenure at the VA, Member Arrington also served as a Labor Relations Specialist, Negotiator, and Labor Relations Chief, developing and implementing numerous collective bargaining agreements. Additionally, he was a Union President representing bargaining unit employees. Member Arrington also previously served honorably in the Navy for four years.
