President Trump Appoints Members to the Federal Service Impasses Panel; FSIP Members Sworn In

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) is pleased to announce that on July 9, 2026 President Donald J. Trump appointed a full slate of eight Members to the Federal Service Impasses Panel \(FSIP\). The newly appointed members are:

- Mark Carter, Chair
- Thomas Beck, Member
- Molly Conway, Member
- Michael Greason, Member
- David Mansdoerfer, Member
- Frank Ricci, Member
- Joseph Santoro, Member
- Vincent Vernuccio, Member

All eight members were sworn into office between July 21 and July 27.

FSIP is an entity within the FLRA. Its Chairman and Members serve on a part-time basis and provide assistance in resolving negotiation impasses between agencies and labor organizations representing federal employees.

“I am pleased that the Panel now has a full complement of members and can resume its important work,” said FLRA Chairman Colleen Kiko.

###

The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for federal employees (excluding postal service employees) worldwide. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute.

The Federal Service Impasses Panel (Panel) resolves impasses between federal agencies and unions representing federal employees arising from negotiations over conditions of employment under the Statute and the Federal Employees Flexible and Compressed Work Schedules Act.
