FLRA Swears in Member Susan Tsui Grundmann

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) is pleased to announce that on May 17, 2022 Susan Tsui Grundmann was sworn in for a first term as a Member of the Authority – the FLRA’s three-Member decisional component. This follows her confirmation in the Senate on May 12, 2022. President Joe Biden nominated her for the role on August 4, 2021.

Ms. Grundmann formerly served as the Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of the Office of Congressional Workplace Rights, and earlier as a Member and Chairman of the Merit Systems Protection Board. An attorney, Ms. Grundmann has also been general counsel to the National Federation of Federal Employees, and to the National Air Traffic Controllers Association.

The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute.
