KIMBERLY D. MOSELEY APPOINTED EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE FSIP

Mary Jacksteit, Chair of the Federal Service Impasses Panel (FSIP or Panel), announced today the appointment of Kimberly D. Moseley as the Executive Director of the FSIP. In her new position, Mrs. Moseley will provide leadership and supervision to the professional staff that investigates, analyzes, and makes procedural recommendations to the Panel Members regarding requests for Panel assistance and, as directed, makes recommendations to the Panel Members and/or drafts decisions on the merits of negotiating disputes between federal agencies and labor organizations representing their employees. “Kim brings outstanding credentials to the Panel,” said Chair Jacksteit. “Her experience in federal-sector labor relations is both broad and deep. She has worked on both sides of the table – labor and management – and she understands the interests of both parties while knowing where the common ground can be found. Kim is also an accomplished and able manager and executive, with a demonstrated commitment to public service. The Panel is confident that Kim’s leadership will ensure the Panel’s continued vital role in supporting collective bargaining in the federal government.”

Mrs. Moseley most recently served as the principal trusted advisor to the Assistant Secretary for Human Resources and Administration, Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). As the VA Deputy Assistant Secretary for Labor-Management Relations, she was responsible for planning and formulating policy and procedures for the VA’s labor-management-relations program, serving as the lead contact with the VA’s national unions: American Federation of Government Employees; National Association of Government Employees; National Nurses United; Service Employees International Union; and National Federation of Federal Employees. From 2009 to 2013, Mrs. Moseley served in various Senior Executive Service positions within the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), including: Deputy Assistant Administrator, Human Resources Management; Executive Director, Office of Labor and Employee Relations; and Deputy Assistant Administrator, FAA Regions and Center. Mrs. Moseley also served as the Deputy Director, Labor and Employee Relations at the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and as the Senior Labor Relations Specialist at the Department of Education.

Prior to her federal service, Mrs. Moseley worked for the National Treasury Employees Union (NTEU) from 1996 through 2008, serving as: Director of Training; Deputy Director of Negotiations; Special Assistant to the National President; National Field Representative; and National Negotiator. She supervised a national staff of attorneys/negotiators that bargained and oversaw the implementation of term and mid-term collective-bargaining agreements in a number of federal agencies. She also developed policy, training materials, and reference guides for national NTEU staff, hundreds of local chapter leaders, and bargaining-unit members. Mrs. Moseley received her Juris Doctor from the University of Maryland School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts in Communications from the University of Virginia.

The FLRA administers the labor-management-relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal-sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute (the Statute). The FSIP resolves impasses between federal agencies and unions representing federal employees arising from negotiations over conditions of employment under the Statute and the Federal Employees Flexible and Compressed Work Schedules Act.
