NOAH PETERS APPOINTED SOLICITOR OF THE FLRA

Colleen Duffy Kiko, Chairman of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA), announces the appointment of Noah Peters as Solicitor of the FLRA. As Solicitor, Mr. Peters will represent the FLRA before all federal courts, including the Supreme Court and the courts of appeals, and advise the FLRA components on legal issues arising under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute. Mr. Peters also will serve as the FLRA's in-house counsel, providing legal guidance on laws such as the Ethics in Government Act, the Freedom of Information Act, the Privacy Act, and the Sunshine Act. Chairman Kiko stated, "I am delighted to welcome Mr. Peters to the FLRA team. The breadth of his litigation experience and his top-notch legal skills will be incredibly valuable to our Agency on a wide range of challenging and complex issues."

Mr. Peters joins the FLRA following a career in private practice, where he focused on labor and employment law. Prior to private practice, Mr. Peters clerked in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio for the late Judge David A. Katz. Originally from Silver Spring, Maryland, Mr. Peters received his B.A. and J.D. degrees from the University of Virginia. He also holds an M.A. degree in American Legal History from the University of Virginia.
