JESSICA S. BARTLETT NAMED REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF FLRA WASHINGTON REGIONAL OFFICE

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) has announced the appointment of Jessica S. Bartlett as the Regional Director of the Agency's Washington Regional Office. In her new position, Ms. Bartlett will be responsible for the investigation and resolution of representation and unfair-labor-practice cases filed under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute (the Statute) in the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia.

Ms. Bartlett received her B.A. degree from the University of Mary Washington in 1998 and her J.D. degree from George Mason University in 2001. She is admitted to the Bar in Maryland. Ms. Bartlett began her career with the FLRA in 2003. She has previously served the FLRA in a number of roles, including as a Senior Attorney-Advisor; the Regional Attorney; and, most recently, as the Acting Regional Director.

The FLRA Office of the General Counsel (OGC) is the independent investigative and prosecutorial component of the FLRA. Through its seven regional offices, the OGC investigates, settles, and prosecutes unfair labor practice charges, resolves representation disputes, including the conduct of secret ballot elections, and provides training to union and management representatives. The FLRA administers the labor-management relations program for 2.1 million non-Postal federal employees worldwide, approximately 1.2 million of whom are represented in 2,200 bargaining units. It is charged with providing leadership in establishing policies and guidance related to federal sector labor-management relations and with resolving disputes under, and ensuring compliance with, the Statute.
